ENZIAN TO HOST 'JAMES BOND' THEMED NEW YEAR'S PARTY

Attendees to Celebrate as Iconic Bond Movie Characters

Orlando, FL - (Dec. 17, 2009) – Secret agents, bond girls and villains – Enzian will host a New Year's Eve celebration straight from the silver screen, Dress to Kill: A James Bond New Year's Party, on Thursday, December 31 at 9 p.m.

Attendees will experience an evening of cinematic revelry as they enjoy a live DJ performing until 2 a.m., Bond-themed drink specials, an exotic car showcase and a spectacular midnight firework show – all while the Academy Award-winning 1964 classic, GOLDFINGER, plays outdoors at Eden Bar.

"Bringing the community together for a major celebration fulfills our mission and Enzian's style is to always involve a movie," said Enzian President Henry Maldonado. "This event satisfies movie-goers' fantasies of living the alluring and dangerous life of James Bond and his Bond Girl and it is also a great cause, as it benefits Enzian's KidFest Young Filmmakers' Camp Scholarship Fund."

Party-goers are encouraged to arrive dressed as their favorite character from the James Bond film series with the most impressive costume winning a V.I.P. table package and an Enzian Dinner for Two gift certificate.

General admission tickets are five dollars and include one complimentary beer, provided by Peroni. V.I.P. tables start at $50.00 and include complimentary champagne. To purchase general admission tickets, to reserve a V.I.P. table, or for more information visit Enzian.org.

Enzian is Central Florida's only full-time, not-for-profit cinema for first-run independent and international film, classic revivals, documentary features, and select family entertainment. Enzian, a member-supported organization serving the community for more than 24 years, is home to the Florida Film Festival which attracts more than 25,000 guests annually, and the Eden Bar.
